--- CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE ---

This is to certify that the Underwater Lubricant distributed by Press-Seal Corporation of Fort Wayne, Indiana, are manufactured in the United States of America using North American and globally sourced components and conforms to the wash test for subaqueous lubricants in accordance with ASTM C-497, and both the Underwater and Regular Lubricants meet the Durometer and volume change test requirements in accordance with ASTM C-497, Section 12.2, and ASTM D-2240.

This certification does not guarantee any field or testing performance criteria. These criteria are controlled by the pipe dimensions and tolerances, as well as field installation techniques, and are therefore outside the control of the gasket manufacturer.
